

Professor Chris Watson, Consultant Liver Transplant Surgeon, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge

Professor Watson trained in Transplantation in Cambridge and Vascular Surgery in Oxford. He was appointed Consultant Transplant and Vascular Surgeon in Oxford, in 1997, before returning to Cambridge as Lecturer in Surgery. He was awarded a Professorship in Cambridge in 2011. Among the various offices he holds he is currently Chair of the Kidney Advisory Group of NHSBT, and past Chair of the Pancreas Advisory Group in NHSBT. His research interests are in donation after circulatory death and liver preservation.