Reflective writing workshops

This workshop is particularly aimed at those who need to produce reflections for revalidation (e.g. nurses, pharmacists, physiotherapists, etc.), but anyone is welcome, including those who need to write reflections as part of an academic course or those who are interested in how reflective practice can enable them to be a better practitioner.

In this workshop we will:

- look at the basic principles of reflective writing and why it is useful
- how to write reflectively
- how the Library can support you in your revalidation.

In the Atrium

Do you struggle to find a print book?
Is the process of renewing your books unclear?
Do you have questions about our library services?

We will be in the Atrium on Thursday 16 and Friday 17 January from 11:30-2:00pm to show you how to locate, order and renew a book on the catalogue.

We will also answer all your questions about our library services and how we can support you. We are looking forward to seeing you in the Atrium if you need help or just for a chat.

Ward visits

In 2019, we visited the wards weekly to give a chance to busy staff to ask us questions about the library services. We are very pleased that we could be helpful and thank you for being so welcoming even when you are all frantically busy!

Our library trolley has covered a lot of miles during these last 4 months and now that things have settled down we will be visiting on a fortnightly basis. To keep things as simple as possible, we will come to your ward on the 1st and 3rd week of the month. But do let us know if you would like an additional visit. Days and times remain as before:

Critical Care	Mon 2-3pm
3 North	Fri 3-4pm
3 South	Fri 2-3pm
4 North & South	Thu 11-12am
5 North	Fri 2-3pm
5 South	Wed 11-12am

If you would like Marie to visit your team/area with a range of resources, please fill in our online form to request a visit or email papworth.library@nhs.net.
